

4th African UNESCO-UNEVOC TVET Summit:
Flexible Learning: from TVET policy to skills training practice
Wednesday, 26th May 2010, Lusaka, Zambia

Draft Programme

- 09:30 – 10:30      Welcome statement
Mr Muzano Simumba, Director of Vocational Education and Training, Ministry of Education, Zambia
- Opening statement
Mr Saul Murimba, UNESCO Office in Harare
- Overview
Ms Alison Mead Richardson, Education Specialist – Skills Development, Commonwealth of Learning (COL)
- Keynote address: Employing the UNEVOC Network, e-Forum and online services to develop and improve TVET
Mr L. Efison Munjanganja, Officer in Charge, UNESCO-UNEVOC International Centre
- 10:30 – 11:00      Innovation and technology: from policy to practice
Mr George Herd, Commonwealth of Learning
- 11:00 – 11:30      Coffee break
- 11:30 – 12:30      Innovation, technology and flexible learning
Mr Nicholas Kimolo, Free/Libre and Open Source Software for Education in Africa (FLOSS4Edu), Nairobi, Kenya
- ICT for TVET teachers professional development in Africa
Mr Temechegn Engida, Programme Officer, ICT Use in Education, UNESCO-IICBA
- 12:30 – 14:00      Lunch break
- 14:00 – 14:30      Flexible skills development initiative
Ms Alison Mead Richardson, Education Specialist – Skills Development, COL
- 14:30 – 15:45      Using ICT to improve quality and access in TVET: Group work
Ms Alison Mead Richardson and Mr George Herd, COL
- 15:45 – 16:15      Coffee break
- 16:15 – 16:45      Using ICT to improve quality and access in TVET: Group reports
Mr L. Efison Munjanganja, Officer in Charge, UNESCO-UNEVOC; Ms Alison Mead Richardson, Education Specialist – Skills Development, COL
- 16:45 – 17:00      Panel discussion and closing
Mr L. Efison Munjanganja, Officer in Charge, UNESCO-UNEVOC